

02 Legacy App!

01. The Client

Legacy Co. was a startup based in Texas, USA. The newly found company wanted to make a space of their own in the market by introducing a unique solution that will set a new example to other startups.

02. The Requirement

Legacy Co. wanted to announce their presence in the market by introducing a novel solution that focuses on keeping your loved one present even after their death through delayed video sharing without compromising on the privacy and security of both the platform and content created.

03. The Solution

AlignMinds developed a mobile application that is most secure and cost-effective to help the startup to transform its unique concept into a user-friendly solution.

04. Features

Google Drive as a medium for secured data storage

It was for the first time in the industry a solution was developed using Google Drive as a medium for secure data storage.

Life Extension Grams

Create meaningful video for your circles that will be delivered after you passes away based on the parameter you have set.

Social sign up

New users can sign up using Facebook or Gmail. Or use email as an alternative option to sign up.

Create Circles

Create a curated list of people who are close to you. Categorise them as trusted contacts, inner circle or outer circle to manage the privacy of content you create.

04. Features

Advanced two-layer security without compromising on the speed

The solution uses a unique two-layer security methodology to secure the content generated by its users. The methodology is separately developed by AlignMinds to offer maximum security to content that is created with an intention to share only with a group of people. While encrypting and decrypting videos is a time-consuming process generally, developing our own method has helped us to not worry about the speed of the process.

6 different unique video sharing dialogues

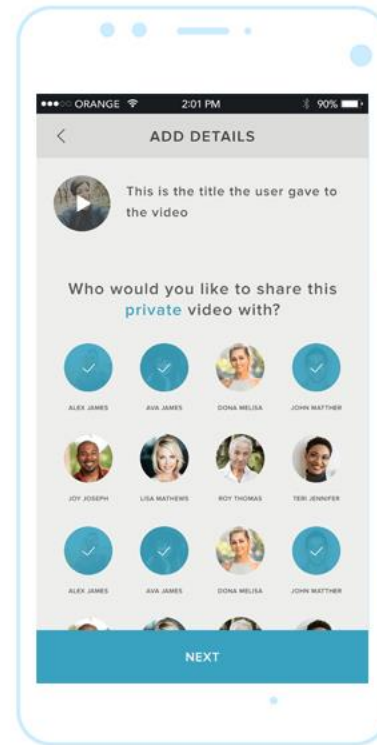

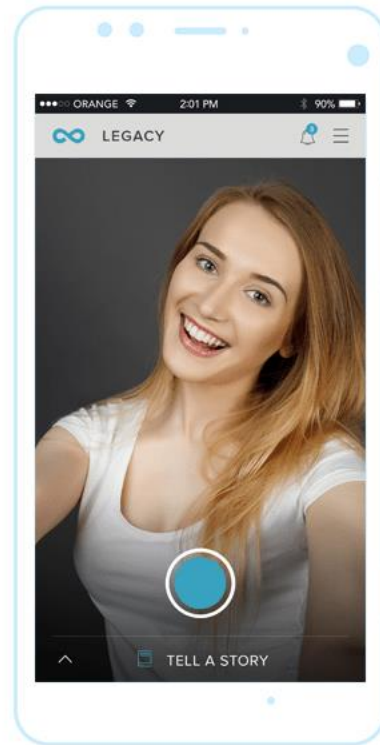

Use Legacy to tell a story, share thought and ideas, give advice, share a secret, share a live experience, or create videos that to be delivered on a special occasion in the future like during a birthday or anniversary.

Profile editing

Add specific dates to your profile that is personal to you like your birthday. If a user of Legacy records a video for your birthday, Legacy will ensure that the video is delivered at the right time.
